INTRODUCTION & ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This genealogical study was begun in 1951 after I had come across some old obituary notices in the Family Bible that belonged to James and Hester Hawkins Foreaker. The information contained in these notices dated back to about 1820, and I decided that it might be fun to try to trace the families back another generation or two.

Genealogical research, I found after some preliminary investigation, is a rather lucrative profession for those people who are living in some of the original thirteen colonies and who have access to the early court records. Nearly all of the present day families had their origins in the original colonies, and if one is fortunate enough to have a family that lived in a vicinity where records were kept, the research is a very easy job. All you have to do is to go and check through the records yourself, or have a professional searcher look for you, and the rates vary for this type of service.

However, in the case of most of the families in this survey, they either lived in counties that didn't keep very accurate records, or else moved around so much that it was hard to find a record of them. But the very fact that it was a hard job, seemed to be a challenge to try and put the puzzle together, and I have received a great deal of enjoyment in collecting the information contained in this booklet. I only hope that many years hence, it falls into the hands of someone who is also interested in the subject, and will thank his or her ancestor, Catharine Foreaker Fedorchak, for writing the information down for future reference. (Many times I have wished that someone had done just that about fifty years ago -- then perhaps some of the puzzles would not have been so puzzling today.)

I want to thank the following people who have helped me in this endeavor, and without whom I would still be searching up "blind alleys",

Charles Everett Hawkins, who now lives at Route #1, Woodsfield, Ohio. He is the youngest child of Jared and Isabel Snodgrass Hawkins, and a first cousin of my grandmother, Hester Hawkins Foreaker. Everett has been very instrumental in helping me find information, and we have had some very enjoyable "field trips" through Monroe County, Ohio, in search of information.

Mrs. Freda Bracy, my aunt, who helped me with the maternal side of the family. I also enlisted her aid in searching through old cemeteries in search of dates and information.

Mrs. Curt Amos, 801 Locust St. Fairmont, W. Va., who is also interested in a branch of the Hawkins Family, and who has given me much information of value.

5-20-52-5

I have also received aid from my mother and father, Isabel Burkhart Foreaker, and James Ray Foreaker, and several other people connected with the Hawkins, Foreaker, and Eddington families, namely Mr. & Mrs. W.E. Hawkins of Woodsfield, Ohio, Mr. Wm. Foreaker of Route #1, Woodsfield, and Mrs. Gilbert Harmon of near Graysville, Ohio (whose maiden name was Eddington.) All of them had pieces of information that filled in and added to the family picture.

I hope the people that eventually read this booklet become interested in the subject, and if anyone has any more information to offer, I would appreciate receiving it.

P.S. I also have to thank the United Steelworkers of America-CIO, where I was employed during 1953, for the use of their typewriter and mimeograph and Mrs. Marge Waichulas, my co-worker, for her help in writing this booklet.

Additional notes were supplied by the author upon presentation.

HAWKINS FAMILY

I shall start this history with the Hawkins Family, because, to date, I have been able to trace it back the farthest.

Nearly every genealogist working with a Hawkins line is desirous of tracing the family back to the Sea Captain Sir John Hawkins (1532-1595) who was a contemporary of Sir Walter Raleigh and Sir Francis Drake in the time of Queen Elizabeth I, and to his equally famous seaman son, Sir Richard Hawkins (1562-1622)

Sir John Hawkins was born at Plymouth in Devonshire England in 1532 and died in 1595. The earliest date I have so far discovered in our family is March 20, 1780, when my great-great-grandfather Joshua Hawkins was born in Maryland.

Everett Hawkins, a grandson of Joshua Hawkins, is of the opinion that Joshua was born in or near Cumberland, Maryland, and that the family originally came from England. 1850 Census records show that when asked his birthplace, Joshua Hawkins gave the information that he was born in Maryland, and that he was 70 years old in 1850.

So it seems safe to assume that Maryland was the birthplace of Joshua Hawkins. However, whether or not it was near or in Cumberland, remains to be proven. There are no records of births at that time, and I have never been able to find any Hawkins records in either Washington or Allegheny Co. Md. to indicate the names of Joshua's parents.

above Joshua Hawkins was married twice and was the father of ten children. His first wife was Cassa Tracy. I am sure this information is correct as I discovered it in a book about early Monroe Co. Ohio settlers, in an article about one of Joshua's sons, Jared Hawkins. The article stated that Jared was the son of Joshua and Cassa Tracy Hawkins and that Joshua Hawkins had settled in Monroe Co. prior to 1840. The article also stated that Joshua Hawkins was a respected member of the early community and had established the early Methodist Church meetings, conducting the services himself prior to appointment of an ordained minister.

I believe Joshua Hawkins was what was known as a "lay minister" both in Monroe Co. Ohio, and before that in Harrison Co., (W.) Va. (see note on page 5 of Joshua's family) He was a man of some learning inasmuch as a record in a Harrison Co. Order Book for 1828-1829 shows that he was a "surveyor on the road leaving Lewis Veach's to a mill on Buffalo Creek". Also the 1850 census record does not list him as illiterate, and shows that he was a farmer worth $1200.00

One of the problems of this study has been to find out something concerning Cassa Tracy, who, being the mother of James Hawkins, is therefore, my great-great-grandmother.

I have no idea when Cassa Tracy was born, as the 1820 census for Harrison Co. Virginia does not list a family by the name of Joshua Hawkins. By 1830, when the family is listed in Harrison Co. census records, it indicates that the family was without a female old enough to be the mother.* Cassa Tracy probably also was originally from Maryland, as I have found records pertaining to the name of Tracy in Maryland before 1800. I believe Tracy is probably of French origin, having been originally "De Tracy", but this line requires a great deal more work to establish, and at present I have no idea as to how to proceed with it.

Therefore, all I know about Cassa Tracy Hawkins, is that she moved to Harrison Co. Virginia with her husband and four children probably in the winter of 1821 or 1820. By that time, I don't suppose there were Indians lurking behind every tree, but still she must have been a typical "frontier wife". She died sometime between John's birth in 1827 and 1830 when Joshua Hawkins remarried.

Andrew Jackson was elected President in 1828, just about the time that Cassa Hawkins died. Perhaps some day I can find a record of her marriage to Joshua Hawkins that will give some clue as to her parents or her birth date.

In the course of my research on the Hawkins family, I came in contact with Mrs. Curt Amos, 801 Locust St., Fairmont, West Virginia, who is interested in an ancestor of her husband's - Rev. William H. Hawkins, who was born in Maryland in 1766. This Rev. William had a sister, Ruth, born in 1769, in Maryland, who made her home with him. He also had quite a large family (see listing following) and one of his descendants was Zana Saterfield (see Rev. Wm's family - page 2) Everett Hawkins has informed me that Zana Satterfield was cousin to Jared Hawkins (son of Joshua) so it seems evident that Rev. Wm. Hawkins and Joshua Hawkins were related - probably brothers, although the relationship could also have been Uncle and Nephew.

There is also a story in both my Hawkins line and Mrs. Amos' line concerning the reason the first Hawkins in this family came to America. One version is that this particular Hawkins was banished from England for participating in cock fights on Sunday, and the other version is that he inadvertently injured someone's prize fighting cock, and after working as a bond servant for seven years as punishment, decided to come to the free country of America.

Following the listings of the families of Rev. Wm. and Joshua Hawkins, I have included some information that Mrs. Amos obtained from Mr. William N. Wilkins, Attorney-At-Law, 4325 Berger Avenue, Baltimore, Md. and also some references I found in Baldwin's Calendar of Maryland Wills that was pertinent. Mr. Wilkins seemed to think that perhaps our family was descended from the Hawkins family of Chas. Co. - see No. 6, inasmuch that is the only line that carried the initial "H". He thought that was significant since Rev. Wm. also had the initial "H". (note also that Joshua is referred to as Joshua H. in the surveying record of Harrison Co.)

* Census records prior to 1850 only list the head of the household by name, and the other members are only listed as males or females and their approximate ages.

However, Mrs. Amos does not agree with this line of thought as she does not think that the "W" in Rev. Wm.'s name stands for "Holland". She is more inclined to think that Charts #1 and 2 might rather be the ones.

While I am writing this down for the benefit of future interested persons, the study is far from completed. Anyone else who becomes interested in this subject, or has information to add will certainly be welcomed, and I request that any interested person get in touch with me.

Further research in Harrison Co. West Virginia revealed these references to the name of Tracy, but I have not been able to tie them to Cassa Tracy Hawkins.

1811 - John Tracy signed marriage bond for his dau. Judith Tracy to John Cookman.

Nov 3, 1821 - (Deed Book 15, Page 157)

John Tracy & wife, Elizabeth. sold land for $300.00 in Harrison Co. (No record on file in that county for purchase of same land).

FAMILY OF REV. WILLIAM H. HAWKINS, Methodist Minister in Marion Co. W.Va. (formerly a part of Monongalia & Harrison Counties, Virginia)

Rev. William H. Hawkins was born in Maryland in 1766 and died in PawPaw Twnshp., Marion Co., West Virginia, on November 5, 1855, aged 89 years. It is known that he had one sister, Ruth, who was also born in Maryland in 1769 and died Feb. 17, 1869, age 99 years. She was unmarried and made her home with her brother William.

Rev. Wm. Hawkins was married three times, and was the father of fifteen children. It is supposed that the third wife of Rev. Wm. Hawkins was Mary Amos, at least she was one of Rev. Wm.'s wives. Mary Amos was the daughter of Henry Amos and was born in Virginia on April 16, 1782. She died Feb. 1, 1841. There is a story handed down in the family that Rev. Williams Hawkins was unable to read and his wife, Mary was accustomed to read the Bible to him before he went to preach. Sometimes his parishioners would take their Bibles and follow when he quoted, to see if he did it correctly but so great was his ability to memorize, that they were never able to find him in error.

According to the 1850 census, Rev. William Hawkins was listed as a farmer, and a preacher, born in Maryland, and worth about $2,616.00

Children of Rev. William H. Hawkins

1. Cassander - Born 12-25-1786 - This oldest child evidently died young, or without issue, for neither she or her heirs were mentioned in Wm. Hawkins' will. All the other children, or their heirs, were named.
2. Mary (Polly) - Born 1792 - Died before 1855 - Married William King, Nov. 29, 1816 and moved to Upshur Co., W.Va.
Mary died before 1855 because Rev. Wm. Hawkins, in his will dated Jan. 8th, 1855, left $100.00 to be equally divided amongst his daughter's (Polly King) children. It is believed that the husband, Wm. King, married again and his second wife was named Rosanna.
3. Idena (Edna or Idney) - Born 1793 - Died 9-29-1852. Married George Amos on Oct. 10, 1816. He was born 8/26/1794, and died 8/11/1853. This George was a brother of the Mary Amos who was married to Rev. Wm. Hawkins.

Supposed to be children of Wm. & Mary Amos Hawkins.

4. Joshua T. Hawkins, physician - Born Oct. 26, 1797 (1850 Census lists Pa. as birthplace). He died Sept. 10, 1856. Married Mary Amos on 1/7/1819. (She was probably his cousin and was born in 1796. - died in 1882)

FAMILY OF JOSHUA HAWKINS - Joshua Hawkins was born about March 20, 1780, presumably in or near Cumberland, Maryland. He was a member of the Methodist Church, and while not an ordained minister, he did conduct services for his neighbors in Monroe County, Ohio, in the absence of regular ministers. His whereabouts between the date of his birth in Maryland in 1780, and the birth of his son James in Harrison Co., Va. in 1821 are unknown, but it is believed that he resided for a time in Loudon Co., Va. during this interval. Joshua Hawkins' first wife was Cassa Tracy, and they were probably married around 1807 in Maryland. No further details are known about Cassa Tracy.

According to the 1850 census, Joshua Hawkins, then living in Monroe County, Ohio, is listed as a farmer, born in Md., and worth about $1,200.00. He was related to the Rev. Wm. Hawkins - either a brother or a nephew.

Additional record found in Marion Co. Marriages - Sarah Snodgrass married Solomon Hawkins Nov. 16, 1848 - marriage performed by Rev. Wm. Hawkins.

The Children of Joshua Hawkins and Cassa Tracy were:

1. Elizabeth Hawkins, born in 1808 - 1850 census lists Virginia as birthplace. Married Jeremiah Hess, Jr., probably around 1834 - lived near Mannington, W. Va.
2. Mary Hawkins - born in 1810, birthplace given in 1850 census as Md. married in 1835 in Monroe Co., Ohio to _____ Jackson, d/ 10-26-1890
3. William - Born Sept. 14, 1812 (Civil War Draft Records give Loudon Co., Va. as birthplace. - mar. Levinia Strayer. Civil War Veteran - 36th Ohio V.I. died Feb. 9, 1892.  see reverse.*
4. Jared - Born in Va. Sept. 24, 1818. Married Isabel Snodgrass in Marion Co. (W) Va. on March 30, 1848 - (this marriage performed by Rev. Wm. Hawkins) died Aug. 1, 1893.
5. Twins - JAMES & Levi Born near Fairmont (W) Va., (then Harrison Co., Va.) on May 25, 1821. - Levi's wife was Margaret. - James married Isabella Brown. James died Sept. 14, 1901.
James Hawkins was the father of Hester Hawkins Foreaker, who was the mother of James Ray Foreaker, who was the father of the writer of this material - Catharine Hester Foreaker Fedorchak.
6. Catharine - Born in (W) Va. in 1824 - married Henry Hendricks (or John Hendrix)
7. John - Born in (W) Va. in 1827 - married Samantha Stine.

Cassa Tracy Hawkins died sometime after John's birth in 1827. She is not listed with the rest of the family in the 1830 census record in Harrison Co., and in the Marriage Bond Book III, on page 58 - Harrison Co., there is the following record.

" Sept. 26, 1830 - Marriage Bond for Joshua Hawkins and Sarah Sandy Signed by John Sandy - ceremony performed by Rev. Wm. Hawkins

Note: Sarah Sandy Hawkins was probably born in 1794, as the 1850 census lists her age as 56, and her birthplace as Md.

The children of Joshua Hawkins and Sarah Sandy Hawkins were:

8. Benjamin Franklin - born in Va. in 1832
9. Eliza Jane, born in Va. on June 14, 1834 - married Wm. Brown, brother of Isabella Brown who married James Hawkins (see above) on 11/18/1856
10. Rebecca - born in 1837 - married _____ Hixenbaugh.

Joshua Hawkins, and his family with the exception of Elizabeth, moved to Monroe Co. Ohio about 1834. The exact date must have been sometime between the marriage of Elizabeth in 1834, in Virginia, and the marriage of Mary in 1835 in Ohio.

The following records also seem to pertain to the above Joshua Hawkins.

West Virginia Historical Magazine - Vol. 5, page 119 - Joshua & Abraham Hawkins supported the claim of Wm. McCree to a Revolutionary War Pension in Harrison Co., Va. in 1833.

Ibid - Vol. 6, Page 212 - Joshua Hawkins & Wm. McCree supported the claim of James Robinson to a Revolutionary War Pension in Harrison Co. Va. in 1833.
James Robinson related from Frederick Co. Md. in 1776.

Note: The above Abraham Hawkins listed in the first reference is supposed to be the son of Rev. Wm. Hawkins. He lived in Harrison Co. - near Mannington. The pension records for the above James Robinson & Wm. McCree failed to shed anymore light on Joshua Hawkins except to state that he was a "minister and a person of good character".

Harrison County Order Book - 1828 - 1829 - It was ordered that Joshua H. Hawkins was to be a surveyor on the road leaving Lewis Veachos to _____ Mill on Buffalo Creek.

This information received from Mr. Simon Peter Jackson of near Jackson Ridge, Center Township, Monroe County in 1954. He was a grandson of Joshua Hawkins, and his mother was Idney Hawkins Jackson, daughter of Joshua and Cassa Tracy Hawkins.

Idney Hawkins - born-Jan. 23, 1816 (probably in West Virginia)
She married Simon Jackson in Monroe County, Ohio on 6/10/1839. Simon was a cousin of Robt. Jackson, who married Mary Hawkins, Idney's sister. Simon Jackson was born Dec. 14, 1819.

Idney Hawkins Jackson died 12/1/1889, New Freesport, Pa, and is buried there at Pleasant Hills Cemetery.

Their children were:

1. Aaron - born 12/31/1839
2. A.G. - born 5/4/1840
3. James - b. 6/29/1841 - died at age of 5 years

The Esther Hawkins and the Ellen Hawkins above were supposed to be sisters, but Mr. Jackson (S.P.) tired easily, and was not able to give me any more information on these Hawkins girls, or how, they were related to the Hawkins in this booklet, or even if they were of a related family. I have no other information on them.

Family of Joshua Hawkins (7)

The 2nd daughter of Joshua Hawkins and Cassa Tracy was Mary, born in Maryland on September 4, 1810. She married Robert Jackson in Monroe Co., Ohio in 1835, and the 1850 census listing for her family is as follows:

Robert Jackson, age 34, Blacksmith, born in Pennsylvania
Mary	40	" "	Md.
Cassa	13	" "	Ohio
Isaac	12	" "	Ohio
Sylvester	10	" "	Ohio
William	5	" "	Ohio
Mary	2	" "	Ohio
Martha	Born Sept. 1849	" "	Ohio

William Hawkins, third child of Joshua and Cassa, was born Sept. 14, 1812. However, when he enlisted in the Army in 1861 (Aug. 13) he gave his age as 45. (His true age was almost 49, and probably he thought that they wouldn't accept him for military service, if he gave his correct age) The description on his enlistment blank reads as follows "Weight 5 Ft. 8½", complexion, -dark, eyes-Black, hair-Black. Born - Loudon Co., Va. occupation-farmer.

Wm. Hawkins served from Aug. 13, 1861, to Sept. 4, 1864, when he was discharged. He contacted some form of lung trouble, and was in the General Hospital Parkersburg, W. Va. for a time., and was on sick leave at various times during this period.

In 1872 he applied for a disability pension stating that he contracted typhoid fever in consequence of exposure to cold and rain while at Summerville, W. Va. about Dec. 1861, and in 1862 at Meadow Bluff contracted jaundice and had it on the march from Meadows Bluff to Warrenton Junction where it settled on his lungs. He says that ever since this time he has been disabled on account of weak lungs which caused violent coughing. He stated that five of his children died of consumption and none of said children were over 26 years of age, at the date of death.

He also stated that his side of the family were generally robust and healthy. He said that his father died of asthma, and that his mother died of consumption.

The 1850 census records for Wm. Hawkins family read as follows:

Wm. Hawkins, farmer, age 37 - born in Va.
Levina	34	" "	Ohio
Mary	11	" "	"
Joshua	10	" "	"
Rolly (female)	8	" "	"
William	6	" "	"
James	5	" "	"
Catherine	2	" "	"
Clarida	Born 5/12/49	" "	"

Family of Joshua Hawkins (8)

Jared Hawkins was born in 1818 - Sept. 24. However, in some records, I have found that he gave his birthplace as Va., in others as Pa., and in the Civil War Draft records, his birthplace is listed as Loudon Co., Va. Inasmuch as Wm. also gave his birthplace as Loudon Co. I believe the family lived for a while in Loudon Co., but have been unable to find any records in Loudon Co. to prove this.

Jared Hawkins married Isabel Snodgrass on March 30, 1848. Isabel Snodgrass was the daughter of William Snodgrass and Nancy King.*

(Isabel Snodgrass had a sister, Comfort, born 11.5.1813, who married Absalom D. Ewing, and also lived in Monroe Co.)

Charles Everett Hawkins, the youngest son of this family, has been a great help to me in my search for family records. He was born on Feb. 16, 1871. * Wm Snodgrass mar Anne King, dau. of John King Monongalia Co. - Mar. 14, 1807

The 1870 census records for the family of Jared and Isabel are as follows:

Jared Hawkins,	age 51,	farmer,	born in Md.	(1860 records show birthplace as Penn. and 1850 as Va.)
Isabel	age 43,	birthplace Va.
Barbara	21	"	Ohio
Martha C.	20
John W.	18
Nancy J.	16
Comfort R.	14
Jeremiah W.	12
Mary E.	10
Francis L.	8
Nicholas E.	6
Paron U.	2

(Chas. Everett - born in 1871)

Twins James and Levi were born near Fairmont, West Virginia on May 25th, 1821.

Levi is listed in the 1850 census for Monroe Co., Ohio, and also in the 1860 census, but not in 1870, so he must have moved between 1860 and 1870. I have no further record on this family.

The 1860 census records read as follows:

Levi Hawkins,	age 39,	Tobacco packer,	born in Va.
Margaret	33	"	" Pa.
Sarah A.	10		Ohio
Elizabeth	13		"
James	6		"
Francis	4		"

Family of Joshua Hawkins (9)

James Hawkins, my great-grandfather, married Isabella Brown on Sept. 16, 1849 in Center Township, Monroe Co. Ohio.

Isabella Brown was born June 5, 1831 in Center Township, Monroe Co., and was the daughter of John Brown, and Sarah Allen Brown. She lived her whole life within a very small radius in Center township, She died October 20, 1923, and is buried at Fairview Methodist Church Yard, Jackson Ridge, Center Township, Monroe Co., Ohio; near her husband, and other members of the Hawkins family, including William Hawkins, Jared Hawkins, & Joshua Hawkins. James Hawkins died Sept. 14, 1901.

9. Forrest Melville
b. 11/3/1868 - died Sept. 16, 1950 (married Ann Francis)

I do not know too much about the remaining children of Joshua Hawkins. John and Samantha Stine Hawkins* are buried in the Unity Church Yard near Antioch, Monroe Co. Catharine Hawkins Hendricks, also lived in Monroe Co. Ohio, and she named one of her sons Jeremiah Hess Hendricks, after her brother-in-law. The original land homesteaded by Joshua Hawkins is now in the possession of one of Catherine's descendants - Mr. Holly Hendricks.

Vol. 1, #7 -- John Hawkins & Wife, Mary

Vol. III - #5 - Mathew Hawkins, Sr.

Vol. V - #1 - Thomas & Eliza Hawkins

Vol. V #2 - This Mathew is probably Mathew, Jr.

Note: * Ralph Hawkins, Sr. - Vol. 1 #1

Perhaps this Ralph, wife Margaret, who died in 1669 was a brother of the John (wife, Mary) progenitor of Chart #1 of Anne Arundel Co.
Ralph & Margaret were the parents of at least Ralph, Jr. & Wm.
See also Vol. II-#2, - which Ralph is this in 1688?
See also Vol. III-#2 - " " " " " 1703?

Also in connection with the Hawkins Family of Anne Arundel Co. is the Will of William Hawkins - wife Eliza, of Broad Neck - dated 1674.
See Vol. I-#4. Is this Wm. also a brother of Ralph Sr. and John?

See also Vol. II-#3 - Who is this Robt. Howkins, wife Mary, who died abt. 1691-1693 in Anne Arundel Co.? Was he a brother or son of

For ref. to Vol. & No. see listing of Md. Cal. of Wills - following.

Vol. I-#6 - The Henry Hawkins of Chart #6 must have had a brother Thomas, a sister Eliza, and a brother, John Jr. (So the father must have also been a John) Was Giles Cole related to the Hawkins family in some way?

Vol. II -#6 - John Hawkins' wife was Eliza, dau. of _____ & Eliza Smith.

Vol. II -#8 - Henry Hawkins - Chas. Co. - did he have a son Henry and also a son Henry Holland?

Vol. II -#10 - Is this reference to the children of Henry & Elizabeth?
(Is it further proof that there were two sons - Henry & Henry Holland?)

References to CHART # 6 (continued)

Vol. III - #1 - Who is this Henry Hawkins of Chas. Co., will dated 1702?
Wife - Sara. Sons Alexander, Tubman, Daus. Eliza & Elinor.
See also Vol. V - No. 4 - Must have also had a son Thomas of Chas. Co.

Vol. III - #6 - Widow of Henry - Eliza, still living in Chas. Co. in 1705

Vol. IV - #6 - Elizabeth Hawkins, widow - died 1716 - 1717.
Had one son ^{in law} Henry Wine by previous marriage - whose children were Frances, Eliz. & Mary. Henry Wine mar. her dau. Mary Emerson
Note: Her will states her son is Henry Holland, and her grandson is also Henry Holland -- Chart #6 shows that Josias is the generation between the two Henry Hollands.

Vol. VII - #2 - #6 John & John, Jr. living in 1737.

Also in connection with the name Henry Holland Hawkins, I received a letter from an attorney - John M. Robb, 19 Washington St. Cumberland, Md. dated 10-3-1951 and he informed me as follows:

Deed on record in Allegheny Co. Md. dated 1839, signed by Josias, Jannette S., Margaret & Henry H (wife Marg.) most of whom were living in Fairfax and other counties in Virginia at that time. Their father was Lt. Henry Hawkins, who died about 1818 and had previously been granted land west of Cumberland for service in Maryland Line in the Revolution. Lt. Henry Hawkins was from Chas.
Co., Md. (Therefore, it appears that the date of death for Henry Holland II, shown in Chart #6 should be 1818 instead of 1750. The date of 1750 probably applied to Henry Holland Hawkins I.)

BROWN FAMILY

Since Ohio Census Records only date back to 1820, and Monroe Co., O. land records only date back to 1835, it was rather difficult to trace these branches of Brown Families. Marriage, birth and death records do not start in Monroe Co., Ohio until about 1880, so I could not learn anything from them either.

I did know that Isabella Brown Hawkins was born in Center Township, Monroe Co. in 1831, and I started with that bit of information.

The 1830 census for Center Township, Monroe Co., Ohio lists the following Brown Families:

#1 - Caldwell Brown - Head of Family - Age - between 40 and 50

Males - 1 - under 5
1 - between 5 & 10
2 - " 10 & 15

Females - 1 - under 5
1 - between 5 & 10
1 - " 15 & 20
1 - " 30 & 40

#2 - Alexander Brown - Head of Family Age - between 50 & 60

Males - 2 - under 5
1 - between 5-10
1 - " 15-20
1 - " 20-30

Females - 2 - under 5
1 - between 30 - 40.

#3 - Hugh Brown - Head of Family Age - between 50 & 60

Males - 1 - between 5-10
2 - " 10-15
1 - " 20-30

Females - 1 - under 5
1 - between 15 - 20
1 - " 20 - 30
1 - " 50 - 60

#4 - James Brown - Head of Family - Age - between 40 and 50

Males - 2 - under 5	Females - 1 - under 5
3 - between 5-10	1 - between 15 - 20
1 - between 10-15	1 - between 40 - 50
1 - between 15-20

The 1850 census shows the following Brown Family, which I determined was the listing for our particular family:

John Brown, Head of Family, age 43 - Farmer, born in Ohio

Matilda, age 38, Born in Ohio	James, age 9, born in Ohio
Isabella " 19, " " "	Dorcas " 7, " " "
Alexander " 17, " " "	Francis " 5, " " "
William " 16, " " "	Sarah " 3, " " "
Ann " 14, " " "	Lewis " 2, " " "
John " 12, " " "	Josiah Born 9/12/1849 "

Since genealogy is rather like a picture puzzle, I pieced the information together and came up with the following assumptions which I believe are probably correct.

As I stated before, I knew that my great-grandmother, Isabella Brown Hawkins was born June 5, 1831 in Center Township, Monroe Co., Ohio, and that she was the eldest child in her family. Since the census was generally taken in the first six months of the year, and since there was no JOHN BROWN FAMILY listed in the 1830 census, it seemed safe to assume that he was probably still living with his father's family when the 1830 census was taken. He probably married around July, 1830.

Being 43 years old in 1850, he would have been 23 years old in 1830. Going back to the 1830 census, I found that only ALEXANDER and HUGH BROWN had boys listed between the ages of 20 and 30.

A search of the recorder's office revealed a record that Hugh Brown, and his wife Helen, had sold their land in Monroe Co. shortly after 1830, and had moved to Guernsey Co., Ohio.

Alexander Brown and his family were still listed in the 1840 census, living near John Brown and his family. Inasmuch as John Brown named his first born son Alexander, I believe that Family #2 in the 1830 census is the record of our particular Brown Family.

Caldwell, Alexander & Hugh Brown may have been brothers, since they were living in the same vicinity in 1830, however I have no proof to substantiate this. I found no other record for Caldwell Brown. He was not listed in the 1840 census, and I could find no land recorded in his name, however, the records, for the most part only go back to 1835.

The #4 BROWN FAMILY in the 1830 census was not related. It was just my luck to find some information on this family, but not to find more specific information about Alexander's family. I shall include the information about the James Brown Family, since it might help some other person searching for Browns in Monroe Co. Ohio.

James Brown, and his wife Sarah Reed, came to Monroe Co., Ohio in April of 1821. James Brown was born on Mar. 17, 1785, and died in August 15, 1837. He is buried in the Unity Baptist Church Yard near Antioch, Ohio (Monroe Co.) and in 1952, when Everett Hawkins and I were on one of our field trips, we found his grave marker which was still legible.

James Brown's oldest son was Jesse Brown, who was born in Fayette Co., Pennsylvania, on April 4, 1813. He married Elizabeth Dye, daughter of John R. Dye, and Priscilla Ridgeway. There were several gravestones in the Unity Baptist Churchyard for DYE AND RIDGEWAY, but since I wasn't interested in those families, I did not copy any information. Jesse & Elizabeth Dye Brown were the parents of Emily, John R. (who was in the Civil War), Abigail, Sarah, James, Priscilla, and Angeline (according to the 1850 census list)

Inasmuch as John Brown shows Ohio as his birthplace in 1807, his father Alexander Brown, must have been one of the early settlers in Ohio. The first settlement in Ohio was made at the mouth of the Muskingum River on the Ohio River at Marietta on April 7, 1788. (Nineteen years before John's birth, and at the time Alexander was between 8 & 18 years old - Alexander was born between 1770 and 1780 - probably nearer 1780.)

One of the officers in the Continental Line of the Army who petitioned Congress for the formation of the Ohio Land Company (which was responsible for the Marietta Settlement) was EBEN BROWN, LT. 1st REG. from MASSACHUSETTS. (Ohio Archaeological & Historical Publication Vol. 1 - 1900 In 1888 Gov. J.B. Foraker, participated in the Marietta Centennial Celebration.. Gov. Foraker was related to our Foreaker Branch)

I assume that our first Brown Ancestor who came to Ohio, sometime between 1788 and 1807, came by way of the Ohio River to Marietta, and then went up the Little Muskingum River to settle in what is now Monroe Co.

The Atlas of Monroe Co., published around 1880, states that Isaac and Nancy Brown, and Joseph & Wm. Cline built the first cabins in Benton Township, Monroe Co., in 1804. They settled on Brown's Run, a tributary of the Little Muskingum River. Isaac and Nancy Brown were also the first members of an early church in Washington Township. Their son Israel laid out the town of Brownsville in 1834. Isaac and Nancy could have been the parents of Alexander Brown, but since Brown is a very common name, it is just as possible that they were not his parents.

The following names are included among the proprietors of the Ohio Co., owners of lands on the Muskingum River - 1788 - 1792.

Ann Brown* - There are records regarding this Ann Brown in the Gallia Co., Ohio Recorders office as follows:

Vol. A - Page 267 - "Winthrop Sargent, Agent for certain associates of the Ohio Co. to Ann Brown, State of New York,
Dated June 13, 1795 - dated at Marietta, Aug. 22, 1810
By Land Grant.

Vol. 4 - Page 140 - Winthrop Sargent, agent for certain associates in Ohio Co. to Ann Brown of New York, dated April 10, 1795, recorded April 30, 1811

Vol. 4, page 143 - Ann Brown of City of New York, in State of New York to Alex'r. McComb of New York - consideration $500.00.
dated Feb. 15, 1804 - recorded May, 1811.

Alexander McComb & Wm. Edgar of the City of New York, also bought land in the Seven Ranges (from which Monroe Co. was later formed) at public vendue in the City of New York - sale held between Sept. 21, to October 9, 1787.

Purchasers of lots at this sale obtained thereby the right of entry and occupancy of the lands that they had purchased. All other persons were to be denied entry.

Alexander McComb & Wm. Edgar purchased the following acreage.

Range IV, Township 1, Section 34 - 636 acres for 1,590 dollars
Range IV, township 1, Section 24 - 640 acres for 1,380 dollars.

Both these sections are located in Jackson Township, Monroe Co.

Land Records in Monroe Co., Ohio, show that John Brown owned land in Section 26, Township 4, Range 5, (about 80 acres) (which was sold to his daughter Isabella by his widow, Matilda) He also owned about 41 acres in Section 24, Township 5, Range 6, which he sold on Jan. 2, 1840 to his brother-in-law Francis Allen. The record for the purchase of the 41 acres is recorded in Monroe Co. John Brown purchased this land from the government during the time Andrew Jackson was president and the deed is recorded in 1835. However, the section containing 80 acres could have been passed on to John from his father, Alexander. This section was in the name of John Brown back to 1834, which is as far as most records in Monroe Co. Recorder's office go.

Therefore, another assumption and possibility is that Alexander Brown was the son of Ann Brown of New York City, and that he settled on the land she had purchased in the sale in New York City. (John Brown's second daughter was named Ann)

I think Alexander Brown was married twice. His first wife died before 1830, and John Brown was either the eldest or second son of this marriage. There were at least two other boys who might have been named Perry & Mathew (these are shown in the 1840 census in Center Township) and two girls. Alexander was married a second time to a woman named Elizabeth, and their children were Joseph Elijah, Isaac & Benjamin.

Alexander Brown died between 1840 and 1850, as Elizabeth is listed as the Head of the Family in the 1850 census. To date, I have been unable to find a gravestone for Alexander Brown. Perhaps his grave is unmarked or perhaps his stone is one of the many I have come across which have been completely defaced by time and the elements. However, I am certain he is buried in Monroe Co., Ohio.

John Brown, son of Alexander, was also married twice. His first wife was Sarah Allen (more of her family later). She was born in 1811, probably in Monroe Co., Ohio.

John and Sarah were the parents of nine children. Sarah Allen Brown died on August 18th, 1847, and is buried at Moffett Church, Jackson Ridge, Center Township, Monroe Co., Ohio.

With nine children, the youngest Sarah only a few months old, it was necessary that John Brown marry again, and he did so in 1848. His second wife was named Matilda and their children were Lewis, Josiah, David, and Albert. John Brown died in 1858 - July 7, (Age 50 years & 20 days) and is buried beside his first wife Sarah at Moffett Church. Matilda Brown sold the land to James & Isabella Brown Hawkins and moved West with her children. I have no further record of her, nor could I ever find out her maiden name.

Three of John Brown's sons were in the Civil War - John, Jr. who was in Co. B. - 25th Ohio Vol. Inf. -- James, who was in Co. G, 36th Ohio Inf., and Francis who was killed in service.

John Brown, Jr. was married to Mary C. Long. In his pension file are affidavits by Joseph W. Brown (age 51 in 1888), resident of Center Township, and Elijah Brown, (age 44 years in 1882) of Woodsfield, stating they were in the same regiment with John Brown. I believe these two Browns were related to John, Jr., being the younger half-brothers of his father, John, Sr. (1850 census lists the family with Elizabeth as Head - age 52, & sons - Benjamin, age 25, Isaac, age 20, Joseph, age 14, and Elijah, age 12. This is the family of Alexander and his second wife, Elizabeth)

James Brown was married twice - (1) to Lydia Duvall and (2) Margaret Mackelroy. Lydia Duvall was the daughter of an early settler of Sunbury Township, Monroe Co. - Jephtha Duvall, a Quaker. Jephtha Duvall was born in Washington Co. Pa. on Feb. 21, 1803. He came to Sunbury Township, Monroe Co. Ohio in 1833. His parents, also Quakers, were John Duvall and Lydia Millison. Jephtha Duvall married Mary Beckett on Feb. 14, 1828, in Belmont Co. She was the daughter of John Beckett and Hannah Potts. Lydia Duvall was born 5/27/1843, and died Jan. 7, 1871. She married James Brown on 11/26/1864 or 1865.

I never found out any information about John Brown's 1st son Alexander. William, the second son, married Eliza Jane Hawkins, 1/2 sister of James Hawkins, and they also lived in Center Township, Monroe Co., Ohio.

The girls married names were Isabella Hawkins, Ann Truex, Dorcas Ferrell, and Sarah Blackledge.

ALLEN FAMILY

I am indebted to Robert Allen Hawkins, my grandmother's brother, for the information that his maternal grandmother's maiden name was ALLEN. As I stated before, there are no early marriage records in Monroe County, and without "Uncle Rob's" help, I wouldn't have known about this family. (Perhaps the Allen in his name is from this family name.)

I used the United States Census Records, the Monroe Co. Recorder's Records, and the Monroe Co. Atlas (published in 1880) in order to gain the information I have on the Allen Family.

Since I had already determined that John Brown and his wife Sarah (Allen) were not married at the time the 1830 census was taken, I had the census records checked to see if there were any Allen Families living in Center Township in 1830. (I felt that it was reasonably safe to assume that John Brown had married a girl who lived in the same vicinity. The roads and hills in Monroe Co., even today, do not allow for easy traveling, so it must have been even harder to get around in 1830).

Volume 41 of the Ohio Census for 1830 showed the following Allen Families living in Center Township, Monroe County, Ohio:

Thomas Allen, Head of Family, age between 50 & 60

Males - 1 under 5 years of age
1 - of 10 years and under 15 years.

Females - 1 of 40 and under 50

Elizabeth Allen - Head of Family, age between 40 & 50

Males - 2 - of 20 and under 30
1 - of 40 and under 50

Females - 1 of 15 and under 20

Note: Inasmuch as Elizabeth is listed as "Head of Family" it indicates that all other males in the household are either sons or hired hands.

Therefore, I was able to determine that Sarah Allen Brown (who died in 1847, age 36 years, and who was 19 in 1830) was the one listed in the Household of Elizabeth Allen (who was either her mother, or her step-mother) and that she had two brothers (or half-brothers) Her father had died before 1830, since he wasn't listed.

I also checked the 1840 census, and 1850 census, and obtained the following information:

I then checked the Monroe Co. Atlas to see if I could find any information there and learned that two of the early settlers in Summit Township, Monroe Co., were brothers James & Thomas Allen, who settled there around 1810. There was also a notation that Francis Allen built the first grist mill in 1830, about 1-1/2 miles north of Lewisville.

Then I checked the Recorder's Office, and was fortunate to find a partial record dated 1820 concerning this Allen Family.

As I stated previously, most of the Monroe Co. Recorders records only go back to 1834 -- there was a fire at the court house that year and most records were destroyed. Some persons brought in deeds to have them re-recorded, and some of the books were only partially burned, and the parts that were saved were recopied in the 1st Vol. of Records. The Allen Record dated in 1820 was one that had been partially burned, but I was able to learn the following from it:

On April 24, 1820, James and Thomas Allen had purchased land at a Public Sale, according to an Act of Congress -- the sale was approved by John Quincy Adams, President of the United States. Later this land was sold by the heirs of James & Thomas -- namely Francis & his wife Jane, James and his wife Phoebe (who were then living in Indiana) and William and his wife Joanna, and Anthony & his wife Jane.

Piecing all this information together, it seems safe to assume that James & Thomas Allen came to Monroe Co. Ohio from England after 1806. (Anthony stated he was 46 in 1850 and born in England, and Francis stated he was 44 in 1850 and born in England) Both James & Thomas Allen were probably born between 1770 and 1780.

I think Thomas Allen had three sons - Anthony born in England in 1804, the other two born in Ohio between 1810 and 1825, one of whom was named William. Thomas was probably only married once, and both he and his wife died in Monroe Co. between 1840 and 1850.

James Allen had two sons and one daughter - Francis, born in England in 1806; James, Jr., who moved to Indiana between 1830 and 1840; and Sarah (Brown) born in 1811, probably in Monroe Co., Ohio. James Allen died before 1830, and his wife Elizabeth died between 1830 and 1840. Elizabeth could have been the mother of all the children, but since neither Sarah Brown, nor her brother Francis Allen, named any of their children Elizabeth, I am inclined to believe that Elizabeth was probably their step-mother. You will note that both Sarah and Francis named sons James, and daughters Isabella, so I am inclined to believe that their mother's name was probably Isabella.

I have never found any grave markers for any of the Allens, but perhaps I have been looking in the wrong places. The Monroe Co. Atlas stated that Francis Allen had built a grist-mill 1-1/2 miles north of Lewisville. I have only searched around Jackson Ridge in Center Township. Perhaps the next time I am in Monroe Co. I can find a gravestone that will give me some specific information on either James or Thomas Allen.

I found Thomas's letter to be very interesting. It was dated 1804, and was written to him by his father, Thomas, who was then in the army. The letter was written on 1804, and was dated 1804.
